

GOOD JUDGMENT
FOURTH GRADE

Objective:

To use literature in teaching students to think before they act, and to make good choices.

Materials: Book The Recess Queen by Alexis O'Neil and Laura Huliska-Beith
Good Judgment poster

Activity:

1) Introduce yourself to the class and explain that you are the Panther Pride Reader for Good Judgment.

2) Ask: What is good judgment? Children brainstorm definitions. Share poster and discuss.

- 1) What does good judgment mean?
 - making good choices
 - thinking before you act
 - Choosing worthy goals and setting proper priorities.
 - Thinking through the consequences of your actions.
 - Basing decisions on practical wisdom and good sense.

Examples- coming to school, taking care of our bodies, listening to the teacher, following directions

3) Introduce book: The Recess Queen by Alexis O'Neil and Laura Huliska-Beith
Ask children what they think this book will be about. Ask them to look at the cover and make a prediction about what will happen in the story.

4) Read book aloud.

5) Ask the class: What was different when Katie Sue came to the school?
she did what she wanted, she didn't know about Mean Jean the Recess Queen, and when she did-she stood up to her

6) What changed the way Mean Jean acted in the end?
Katie Sue invited her to play jump rope

7) What would you do if you had someone at recess acting like a Recess Queen?

Evaluation:

8) Ask the class to share a time they had to make a hard decision.

Students can share times they showed good judgment and were able to think before they acted. (Sharing their toys, being polite to friends and grown-ups, coming to school, using good problem solving skills)
